List of the Fever's Victims, Including the Bead, Canvalescents, and Those Yet Sick-An Eventful Voyage by River Both Ways.

Below we give the report of General Smith the Howard association on the condition of Concordis, together with the names of the dead and those recovered from the dread

To the President and Members of the Howard Asso-casion:

We left Memphis by order of the Howard association on Friday, the tenth, on the steamer C. W. Pierce, that being the only boat that could be procured to make the trip to Concordia. We arrived at our destination Saturday night at half-past ten o'clock, and been on duty, sick. All hope to see her ready were met by Mr. Johnson, superintendent of nurses, everybody else having retired for the nurses, everybody else having retired for the THE Davis-Jones combination which left | night. We declined to give any trouble, and decided to remain on board until morning, when we were met by Dr. John B. Pease, health officer, and Dr. C. M. Corell, of Green ville, Mississippi. After inutual introductions by each, Mr. A. M. Stoddard, Dr. J. Wise and myself were invited to seats in Dr. Pease's barriage and driven to Mr. Frank's storehous and, after being introduced to Dr. Craft, of Jackson, Mississippi, and Dr. Banks, o Vicksourg, we partook of a sumptuous breakfast, when we announced ourselves ready to go to work and anxious to do anything that would alleviate suffering. We learned from Dr. Pease that they had no money to pay nurses, and that they had no cornmeal in the town, no flour, sugar or coffee; meat was entirely out, and medicines were needed very badly. We left them flour, meal, blankets, mattresses, pillows, whisky, brandy, seltzer water, soda-crackers, meat, rice, candles milk, sage, porter, sugar, tea, medicines, ime water, nitre, one box lemons, castor o quinine, syringes and two hundred dollars is money. They were the most grateful people we ever saw. The white people have nearly all died. There were when we arrived fifteen > doctors were of the opinion that they could now control the disease, as it was much less malignant with the colored than with the white population. Besides the obysicians named there are Dr. J. Mayers and Dr. J. W. Fawcett. So hat you will see that they are well supplied We remained all day Sunday, and started down with the fever, nearly all colored. The

with doctors. for Memphis on Monday at nine o'clock, and arrived here yesterday morning at elever Who is the proprietor of Tutt's liver pills, unlike most of those who come before the public in this light, is not an empiric, but a physician of long practice and nigh standing in his profession. He was for many years a professor in a well-known medical college, and also the principal of the largest drug establishment in the south. These facts indicate thorough medical skill, wide professional experience and chemical skill. The country is so full of quacks defrauding the public with worthless nostrums that it gives us pleasure to notice the advent of a skillful and scientific physician into this field. Dr. Tutt's pills we believe to be the best specific yet offered to the public. They have all the heroic virtues of calomel, without any of the evil influences of that mineral. It is especially in the south and west, where malarial diseases are common, that the reputation of clock, over four days traveling one hundred diseases are common, that the reputation of these pills are most widely acknowledged.

We might as well we returned to Memphis. We might as well have been in the jungles of Africa as at Concordia as far as news from the outside world is concerned, as it is sixty-five miles to the nearest telegraph station. W. J SMITH.
